

Canberra, November 18, 2011

Honorable James M. Peck
One Bowling Green
Courtroom 601
New York, New York 10004
United States of America

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to oppose the disallowance and expungement of Claim Number 47437. Please note below the full details of the Case, Creditor and Claim:

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT Southern District of New York
In re Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., et al., Debtors Two Hundred Fourteenth Omnibus Objection	Chapter 11 Case No. 08-13555(JMP)
Creditor Name and Address: Klappembach Childe, Celta Benito Blanco 1293 apto. 1001 Montevideo, CP 11300 URUGUAY	Claim Number: 47437 Date Filed: 10/26/2009 Debtor: 08-13555 Classification and Amount: UNSECURED: $50,000.00

The request to Disallow and Expunge the aforementioned claim was made in the Two Hundred Fourteenth Omnibus Objection filed by Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the "Debtors") with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

Please note that I requested and received an extension of time to respond until November 25, 2011. I enclose the corresponding exchange of e-mails with Mr. Ryan Martin of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP.

I am writing this response in representation of my mother whose name and address as the Creditor appear above. The above address is correct and should be used by the Debtors to reply to this response. I request that any reply also be sent by e-mail to alf@adinet.com.uy. I can also be reached by phone in Australia at +614 2082 7291.

My mother and I are small-time investors who bought Lehman Brothers bonds in good faith and like so many others were affected by this bankruptcy. We do not have the resources to hire an attorney in order to provide the legal bases upon which we oppose the Objection. However, after reading the reasons for the Objection, we cannot accept that LBHI has no liability to us as holders of a legitimate and timely filed Claim. We therefore consider that the aforementioned Claim should not be disallowed and expunged, and instead, we request that our Claim be included in the distribution of the Debtors' estate. I trust that the Bankruptcy Court will defend the rights of small-time investors in this matter and will decide in our best interests.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Martin,

It was a pleasure to speak with you today and I thank you for the information you gave me. I am also sending a copy of this message to Mr. Mark Bernstein, whose name appears on your original notice as an attorney for the Debtors (Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and certain of its affiliates).

In this regard, I would like to request an extension of no less than 30 days to the response deadline of November 11, 2011 regarding the Debtors' Two Hundred Fourteenth Omnibus Objection to Disallow and Expunge Certain Filed Proofs of Claim.

The Claim Number of my mother, for whom I am writing this message, is 47437. If you agree with this extension, I'd appreciate it if you could email me written confirmation indicating for how many days the extension has been granted.

Kind regards,

Alberto Fajardo
